HERITAGE INSURANCE DUE:

Evelyn Ingersoll, Heritage Treasurer, stated that a few donations had been made from some of the members to help subsidize the costs of building insurance for the Marland Station; however, the Heritage is still short the amount needed to cover the costs.

Currently, additional monetary donations are being sought and fundraising options are being discussed.

FUND RAISER REPRINTS:

Ingersoll also had more copies of the Railroading Through the Osage book printed. The small book is sold as a fund-raiser for the Heritage and is available for purchase at the Drummond Home Museum and the Hominy Public Library for $5.00.

In addition, books of collected stories from some of Hominy's earliest residents and an early history of Hominy are available to be purchased at the Hominy Public Library.

DIGITAL FUND RAISER:

Later this year an all-school alumni reunion will be held in Hominy. During that time, we are discussing the possibility of opening the Katy Depot for tours that day, at which time, we will be selling digital copies of some past year Hominy School year-books for $15.00.

Many of the annuals are already digitized, and are being formatted to fit on CDs which can be created at the time of purchase.

MOUND VALLEY PHOTOGRAPH:

An aged panoramic photo of students in front of the Mound Valley School (Bottom) was taken to Kinkos to have a copy made that could be taken to an upcoming alumni reunion. Wear on the photo could cause issues when copying, due to the fragile state and length of the photograph that would have to be fed through the scanner. Currently, other methods to create a copy of this one-of-a-kind photo are being explored.

YOUR VOICE, OUR HISTORY:

Preserving Hominy's history is only half of the job that the Heritage Association undertakes. After collecting, cataloging and storing our acquisitions, we are always looking for ways to share them with anyone interested.
