

Hominy Indian Crew Vanquish N. Y. Giants 13 to 6

HOMINY INDIANS TRIUMPH OVER NEW YORK GIANTS

Levi Throws 60 Yard Pass For Winning Counter

HOBSON STARS

Miller, Constock and Hobson Star for Giants

The Hominy Indians triumphed over the New York Giants yesterday 13 to 6 in a hard fought, spectacular game at the High School Field. The New York Giants using Vic Miller, local athlete, Herb McKenzie, and "Rudy" Constock, to make the play of several of the regulars who failed to arrive in time for the fray, flashed a brilliant passing game which undoubtedly would have meant a victory if "Dutch" Hill had been himself. Dutch dropped four perfect passes in the first quarter that would have been good for substantial gains had he been playing his customary flashy game.

It took Ben Hobson, Giant half, to furnish the thrills of the encounter. Hobson played a smashing game taking Carl Kendrick's passes on the line and smashing thru the line with regularity. Hobson showed that he was the real football player that he was purported to be, reaching hard, showing a playing spirit that is seldom seen on pro teams.

In the second quarter Hobson caught one of Kendrick's passes and galloped twenty yards where he was stopped on the five yard line, following this he took the ball on an off tackle play and crashed over for the Giants' only touchdown.

Constock played a wonderful game making beautiful tackles behind the line and stopping the Great John Levi time after time. Vic Miller was recruited from the wrestling ranks, showed the boys how football was played in Texas and won the applause of the entire crowd by his hard tackling and strong line work.

The much-heralded John Levi was in there fighting and planning for the Indians and showed that he was truly an All-American player. Levi's drives were the feature of the game, his bullet like passes coupled with his smashing drives were responsible for the Hominy victory.

In the third quarter Levi threw a 60 yard pass to Pappie who made a beautiful running catch on the goal line for the Indians second quarter.

Their first score came in the first quarter when a 100 yard pass from Levi to Pappie, and John Levi played a bang up game for the Indians while Ben Hobson, Constock and Miller shone with equal brilliance for the Giants.

Eleven men such as Hobson playing against eleven men such as Levi would present about the best football team that possible could be made.

Whitley Shelton, Indian half, was handicapped by a bad leg, but returned punts and kicked the field goals in a flashy speedy style that has earned him the name of the fastest back in Southern pro football.

The game was a fitting climax to the football season in Oklahoma with fair weather and a large crowd, the Giants and Indians flashed a good game of football and the spectators' lines in doubt as to the outcome until the final whistle.

best proof is the fact that his off-season occupations now are hunting, fishing and golf, outdoor sports that keep him in a good trim and during the summer season. Now that he has tried it out, he admits he prefers the simple life.

And he is saving his money. Drawing $75,000 under his Yankee contract that has two years more to run at that figure, Ruth collected well over $150,000 altogether, from various sources this year.

But it was really the "hot water wagon" treatment of Artie McGovern, the Babe's trainer, that put the Babe permanently on the comeback road. Artie took the Babe in hand several years ago when his baseball days were considered to be numbered.

Ruth's famous stomachache put him on the shelf in 1925 and most of the boys believed he would stay there. But the hot water treatment supplemented by dieting and a stiff course of exercise put the Babe on his ball-dancer's feet. He has stayed there ever since.

Ruth's natural genius for athletics is illustrated by the amazing strides he has made in golf. It is the same with anything at which he has been tried his hand in sports. He is a born athlete.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

Ruth takes a tremendous swipe at the ball with his wooden clubs and gets corresponding distance, usually well over 250 yards. Unlike most golfers, who are usually as well on the links as they are on the baseball field, the Babe is accurate with the wood. Like most ball players, he is an excellent putter. His eyes are well-trained to gauging distances. His chief weaknesses are with his short game.

Ruth scores in the low 80's regularly on the links. Just the other day, playing with some friends on a Long Island course, the Babe missed nothing a snappy 78 only because he flubbed the last hole, taking six on a par-four layout and carving 80 for the round.

"THAT LITTLE GAME"

HOYLE

WESTERN ELEVEN WINS CLOSE GAME FROM EAST STARS

Joel Hunt, Mathews and Mann Carry Off Honors; South All-Stars Win 8-0 from Westers

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27 (AP)—Two All-star football teams representing the west broke even in sectional contests yesterday, when one eleven defeated the eastern team 16 to 6, as the other lost to the southern All-stars 8 to 0.

The East-West game, played in San Francisco under perfect weather conditions before a crowd of 27,250, developed into one of the greatest upsets of the 1927 grid season. The casters, with some of the greatest players developed in the country for years, were top heavy favorites to win but a fighting western eleven that outplayed their opponents in the first half, led grimly into their lead in the last half to win.

DELANEY-SHARKEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 27 (AP)—While uncertainty continued to shadow the Jack Sharkey-Tom Heeney heavyweight battle, down for Jan. 13, Madison Square Garden, Dr. W. G. Fraulick, Sharkey's physician, stated today that a definite decision on the Boston boxer's condition would be made this week.

Fraulick said Sharkey would come here for an examination in three or four days. At the present time, Sharkey has evidenced no trouble with his injured left hand in banging the punching bag. He has done no sparring.

Although Jack Delaney, of Bridgeport, Conn., has been put forward as a possible substitute for Sharkey against Heeney in the event Sharkey is unable to box, there is a question of Heeney's handlers agreeing to such a match.

50% KNOCKOUTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 27 (AP)—Practically 50 percent of the ring conquests of Joe Louis, who took the heavyweight heavyweight title, have been by way of the knockout route.

The latest victim was soldier James Morante, who took the dramatic punch in Pittsburgh last night after 55 seconds of fighting.

Flames Damage Air Hangars at Bowling Field

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27 (AP)—Fire broke out today in the air corps and quartermaster hangar at Bowling Field, the army's big aviation station here, and had done considerable damage to spare airplane parts and new service uniforms before it was under control.

Spare parts to the value of $1,000, 600 was said by officers to have been stored in the west end of the hangar, but most of the damage was believed to have been done in the east end where the uniforms and their equipment were kept. Much of the damage was done by water.

The fire was blamed on an overheated engine that had been started. Officers at the field would not estimate the exact amount of damage to the supplies, which included some

Rome Shaken By Quake on Christmas Eve

ROME, Dec. 27 (AP)—Rome returned to normal today after a Christmas earthquake which caused considerable excitement but little damage.

The cornice of a church broke off during the tremors, which lasted four minutes, injuring a Brazilian who was passing by. He was treated for minor injuries. Collapses of several houses fell and a fissure was opened up in a populous quarter.

The shock was felt distinctly at a football game in the Apian velodrome. Officials quieted the half panicle-stricken fans and prevented a threatened stampede.

Fires were quickly summoned and took precautions to prevent accidents because of the cracks opened by the earthquake.

Pope Pius was in his private study at the Vatican, when the tremors were distinctly felt and was surprised to see books and papers moving and the furniture vibrate.

NINETY-ONE BASKETS

(Cont. from page 1)

this Christmas giving," said Captain Hattall.

"The Lion's Club deserves much credit for the gathering up of toys, the manual training department of the high school for repairing and decorating them, the ladies of the Episcopal Guild for their gift of dolls, electric lights, candy and oranges for the Christmas tree."

Among those specifically thanked were Mrs. George Mount for her gift of a Xmas tree and the decorating of same; the Bakul (Credent Men's Association) and the American Legion for their gifts of Christmas tree and ornaments; Mrs. Pat Henry for her gift of dolls; Mrs. E. P. Scott for her gift of comforts and blankets; Mrs. Fred Williams for her gift of candy; Woolworths store for its gift of candy and Katherine Burr for her gift of twenty-five sacks of flour.

There were numerous other men and women, some of whom did not even give their names who made gifts of money and other materials. In all these, the Salvation Army extends its thanks.

Christmas baskets were given to the colored people, and two Christmas trees were furnished for their entertainment.

OLD RESIDENT

(Cont. from page 1)

Mr. L. H. Joyce and daughter Arletha of Madison, Wis. Other guests were Mr. Billie Savage and Miss Johnson, nurses.

Billie Savage is another old resident and a life-long friend of Mr. Pearson's. Several of the children reported Mr. Pearson to be feeling much better than usual.

HICKMAN (Continued from Page 5)

and he concluded that the time had come to put her to death.

Hickman was said to have told Reynolds that he would be willing to plead guilty to murder and kidnapping and would accept imposition of the death penalty without delay.

You are invited to meet

THE PRESIDENT

at a New Year's Reception in this city on ## January 2nd 3 p. m. to 11 p. m.

DRAUGHON'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

Oklahoma City, Okla. Mid-Winter Term January 2, 1928 ADVANTAGES

- 1—ACCREDITED courses of work.
- 2—DRAUGHON'S, the largest system of business Training Schools in country.
- 3—40,000 former graduates and 40 years of success—a big help to the students of today.
- 4—A LIFE SCHOLARSHIP issued under Seal of School with GUARANTEE for Position in face of it and good in any DRAUGHON College.
- 5—Our employment Department places you in position when training is completed.
- 6—OUTLINE-INDIVIDUAL METHOD used in this school saves time and money. It has many advantages.
- 7—DRAUGHON Training gives the young man and woman the right start in life. DRAUGHON'S has NATIONAL REPUTATION and DIPLOMA means something.
- 8—The DRAUGHON GUIDE, our new Catalog, contains the information you need and is FREE!
- 9—In order to help and accommodate interested young people our school building and offices will be open all through the holidays—come to see us.

HOME STUDY

This department is a SUCCESS and brings the same thorough training to you. Write for HOME STUDY literature.

BUSINESS PRACTICE

Graduates appreciate the work in this department which is the application of the training before entering the business world.

T. M. Flanary, Pres. I. D. Flanary, Mgr.

Next time you buy calomelask for

The thoroughly purified and refined calomel combined with assistant and corrective agents. Nauseous—Safe—Sure

Advertise in the Daily Journal Capital